olls from the race for the Democratio nomination for chief of police, exclusively mentioned in the Intelligencer, the result of the election for this particular office is being conceded by many politicians to the Republican candidate, who will be William Clemans or Joseph Bero. For the Democratic nomination, there remains but one aspirant, ex-Police Officer John Ritz, who will now, of course, secure the nomination. It is learned that the true reason for the withdrawal of Nicholls was the large and extremely healthy Republican majority in the city. Mr. Nicholis is really

ENJOYABLE OCCASION

The "Dokies" are preparing for another feast of fun and good things, and the coming session will eclipse any of its predecessors. The arrangements call for a reunion of the votaries of Wheeling, Allegheny, Fairmont, Columbus, St. Clairsville and Charleston, to take place in this city on Christmas or New Year's day, when a large number of

The idea is to have the initiations take place in the afternoon, and the banquet in the evening. The parade will be over the principal streets to Pythian Castle, where the ceremonial session will consume the remainder of the afternoon. The banquet will be given in the auditorium of the Pythian Castle.

large turn-out may be expected from abroad. The visitors will of course turn out in the parade and will be treated cogally by the home boys.

Every "Dokie" in the city is taking a great interest in the coming reunion, and it may be depended upon that Wheeling will be lively that day and evening. Already there are over a dozen candidates for the rank. A reception and ball have also been suggested as a fit closing for the New Year's days festivities, but this has not been decided. The officers and executive committee of Dahna Temple will meet early next week to decide on Christmas or New Year's day.

Mr. Baumer Secures one of the Hand-somest Instruments ever Made.

A reporter for the Intelligencer in osing around for news yesterday, met Mr. Fred. W. Baumer, of the firm of F. W. Baumer & Co., who had just returned from the east, where he had been and musical noveities, and during the course of a conversation with him the course of a conversation with him the subject of general business was touched course of a conversation with him the subject of general business was touched upon.

"There is no denying the fact," remarked Mr. Baumer, "that business is on the boom all over the country. You can see it in New York better than any part of the country, because that city is the pulse of the business and commercial world. I visited the ware-rooms of the famous plano manufacturers of Steinway, Krakauer, Ludwig and Knanich & Bach, and every one of them was away behind in orders. This is an indication that the country outside of New York is prosperous and in the humor for buying."

"Strike anything new while you were away?" asked the reporter.

"Indeed I did, and I was lucky to do it, too, I was in Steinway's plano salessooms when my attention was attracted to one of the handsomest instruments I ever laid eyes on. It was a mahogany finished grand, and its tones were as fine as its casing. When I expressed a desire to possess it I was told that it had been specially set aside for a particular customer. I was disappointed, but having set my heart on the instruments by dint of persistent pleading the Steinways reluctantly let me have it. I have seen many handsome instruments in my time, but without exaggerating a particle, it is really the most beautiful plano I ever faid eyes on. And which is better, its harmonies are as sweet as the instrument is handsome. Yes, I will have it on exhibition, and I want every lover of music to come in and hear it, as well as admire it. It will cost nothing to look at it."

The Virginia is again demonstrating her ability to push up the Ohio faster than any of her sister boats of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati line. She passed up yesterday at 1 a, m. and Captain Kerr in the office.

The agreement reached by the packet owners at Pittsburgh this week was merely verbal, and some steamboatmen fear that the Argand and Urania may soon reappear and bring about a further demoralization of rates. Captain William Bay is a fighter from the word go and may become restive and risk all on a fight to a finish, which is distinctly his style. Certain it is that if he brings out the Urania again the Argand will reappear and possibly another boat. It is hoped the packet owners will not make such a disastrous move; it would be well for them to remember that they alone would be the losers, and whatever their losses foot up is that much gain for their pairons, though in the end it is certain the public would lose through the lowering of the present high standard of service.
